

March News and Updates!

March is National Social Worker Awareness Month!

March is here and we shift our focus to National Social Worker Awareness Month! Hear from CYN's Clinical Supervisor, Diane Peterson (LCSW) about her experience as a social worker and how she has made an impact in the field! #SocialWorkersareEssential

Special thanks to the students at Grayslake Central!

We are so thankful to Grayslake Central High School's Future Business Leaders for the work they put into creating these Stress-less Bags of Hope for CYN clients!

Each bag contains a childfriendly book about tools to manage stress, individually packaged Crayola crayons, hand sanitizers, a face mask, a new fidget toy, an unused stress ball, new unopened coloring supplies, and a new stuffed animal!

Meet the Board! Ken Strom - CYN's Board Treasurer

Ken Strom owns a local business that builds, renovates, and rents homes across Lake County. He has been on the CYN board for eight years. He joined CYN because of the great work they were doing to help our community. He has a degree in Finance from Miami University of Ohio. He is an active volunteer at his church, a leader with the Boy Scouts and a mentor with Kid's Hope USA. "I am very pleased with the growth of CYN - with the staff now helping well over one thousand people per year. Due to the stress and isolation from the pandemic, CYN's services will be needed now more than ever."
